7th September 2018

Dear Parents,

As part of our first English unit on 'Spy Stories', we have been studying Anthony Horowitz's 'Stormbreaker'. As well as listening to the story, the children have been writing their own spy story, designing gadgets, creating villains and describing interesting locations.

On Friday 14th September we will be having a spy themed day. As part of this day, we would like the children to watch the 'Stormbreaker' movie, which was released in 2006. This will give the children the opportunity to compare the book and the movie. The movie is rated as a PG by the British Board of Film Classification and therefore we do need to inform you that we are going to be showing it. If, for any reason, you do not want your child to watch the movie, a suitable alternative activity will be arranged.

On 14th September, we would like to encourage the children to dress up as a spy if they can find a suitable costume. If they can't think of an outfit to wear, the children should come to school in their own clothes for the day.

Please notify us by Tuesday 11th September, if you do not wish your child to watch the movie.

Yours sincerely,

Mr O'Connell and Miss Panter
